Liberty Hotel

Take Monday Off

Where: Boston

Price: $284 a night at the Liberty Hotel on Charles Street (25% off). Airfare $223 round-trip (JetBlue); Amtrak Acela $126 round-trip.

Visiting Boston after the 4th means catching one of the quietest weeks of the summer—and sidestepping most of the holiday weekend's Harborfest crowds. Local travel experts recommend the 29th annual Chowderfest and the free "Made in Massachusetts" film series. Guests at the Liberty can tour the city on the hotel's complimentary bicycles, if they don't mind the heat: average July temperatures are 5 degrees higher than on nearby Cape Cod.
